

Rabbi's Message

Shanah Tovah!

A happy, healthy, and fulfilling 5779 to you!

I would like to begin this New Year with one simple phrase:

Thank you! Thank you so very much to all those who helped to make our first High Holidays as Shir Tikvah as outstanding as they were!!!

First, I would like to reiterate what a pleasure it was to have our rabbis emeriti, Rabbi Ellen Dreyfus and Rabbi Shalom Podwol, as well as Cantorial Soloist Dalia Podwol with us again this year. We are so fortunate that our community has maintained a deep and rich connection with them, along with Dr. Jim Dreyfus, and Rabbi Wolkow and Helen. May we continue to have many reasons to celebrate together! Todah Rabbah!

Next, I want to thank three women who have, at least since my arrival here – and well beyond – made it possible for our High Holidays to run seamlessly. Gayle Weil, Carole Fefferman, and Janet Herbstman each put in hours upon hours of planning, organizing, assigning, re-assigning, coordinating, meeting, confirming, and preparing for the High Holidays, and I know that I most certainly could not do what I need to do without their help. Thank you so much, ladies, for your dedication and for every little task that went unnoticed; you did an amazing job and we are very grateful to you!!!!!!

Multumesc, or Thank you, to Bob Oros, our incredible custodian, for all his help in getting the building ready! Our Temple looked incredible and it was due, in no small part, to Bob's efforts to ensure that our bimah was re-carpeted, our foyer wall had drywall, our books were set out, and our chapel fit no less than 100 chairs as comfortably as it could! And a big thank you to Larry Burrows, Gary Schwarz, and Bob's own niece, Dorothy, who helped re-build the bimah, set up the sound, and made sure the building was ready – inside, and out! We couldn't have done it without you!

A huge thank you to our terrific office managers, Cathy Burnett and Diedre Bodine, who worked tirelessly to make sure flyers and announcements were sent, tickets were printed and distributed, the yizkor book was put together, and questions were answered. They helped to coordinate RSVPs for break-the-fast and holiday greetings, and they made sure we had everything in place. Thank you for all the photocopies and mailings, for the phone calls, the flowers, security, and for helping to make our High Holidays so well-organized!

Another big thank you goes to Eila Koltun who took on the great task of organizing our community break-the-fast! What a delightful and delicious experience it was to conclude our services together and to sit down, immediately following, for a wonderful meal. Thank you so much for once again helping to coordinate this effort, and for setting and cleaning up, even after such a long day of fasting and prayer!

Thank you to Ginny Gilbert, Donelle Macy, and the women of Shir Tikvah who helped organize another successful – and tasty!- High Holiday challah and cake sale! Y'shar Ko'ach!

Thank you so much to our choir who, beginning at s'lichot, provided the beautiful music for Reform services. It is so nice to hear your voices, and we appreciate your dedication and your time, as you work hard in preparation for the Days of Awe each year. And thank you to Justin Callis, who ably led our choir in preparation for and on the High Holidays. It was a pleasure to get to sing with you, and y'shar ko'ach to you and to our choir on outstanding services!

Thank you to Larry Burrows, Stuart Switt, Ron Rutzky, Mike Kaminsky, and Zach Larks, who so beautifully blew the shofar on Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. It was pleasure sharing the bimah with you!

Thank you to Donelle Macy and Nancy Burrows, who, along with Donelle's neighbor, made the beautiful pomegranate in the front foyer. May all our wishes for the new year, written upon it, come true!

And a huge thank you to everyone who helped, whether by setting a Torah, reading Haftarah, throwing out trash, washing a tablecloth, cooking a dish for break-the-fast, and so on, truly made a difference! We are very appreciative of everyone's efforts!!!

Despite every best intention in sharing this list with you, I am certain that I have inadvertently left off the names of others who ought to be recognized for their contributions to our first High Holiday season as Shir Tikvah. I offer my sincerest apologies to anyone whose name I have unintentionally left out and ask that you please consider this list the beginning of the thank yous and not the end. Please feel free to send me the names of others whose efforts should be noted and I will make sure to add them to next month's message! And if someone made a difference for you this New Year, please, by all means, let that person know! Together, we can cultivate an attitude of gratitude for 5779!

Again, thank you very much! Todah Rabbah!

May this New Year bring much for which to be grateful!

~Rabbi Carmit Harari

An Update from Beit AmiChai Hebrew School

The first month of our new school year went by so quickly as we were busy preparing for our Hebrew School students to lead our Erev Sukkot and Erev Simchat Torah services. They were so wonderful and made the service a huge success! We look forward to watching them continue to grow through the year!

On Sunday, October 7th, Sunday School and High School Havurah will be at Shir Tikvah from 9:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. At 11:30 a.m. there will be a burial of Jewish sacred items. This will take place on the grounds at Shir Tikvah, the school and members of our community are invited to participate.

~Mindy Miller, Principal

President's Letter

Our presidents' message for this month is the speech we gave for the Kol Nidre appeal. Not everyone was able to hear it, and we feel that the message is important. Even if you had heard it, please read the message and think about what you will donate.

Thank you.

SHIR Tikvah KOL NIDRE ADDRESS 5779

L'Shana Tova and Mazel Tov to all of us, as we celebrate our first High Holiday services here as Shir Tikvah. We are all part of a wonderful and unique experience as we work together to build a new entity. Bringing with us our individual practices and traditions while creating new ones, we will carry forward the best of Congregation Am Echad and B'nai Yehuda Beth Sholom as we move into year 5779.

Shema Yisraeil. Hear O Israel. And so, daily, we are exhorted to hear. The High Holidays can be thought of as a time to communicate—to talk and to hear—with G-d, with each other, with ourselves. As we communicate, we hear, but do we listen? Do we try to understand what we hear and why we are hearing it? Last week, Sherry heard the shofar being blown at Johannesburg International Airport. During the month of Elul, the tradition is to blow the shofar each weekday to remind us, but to remind us of what? The shofar is an awakening to listen, an alarm clock that tells us to get up, look around, take action to improve not only ourselves, but also the world around us. Our world cannot be improved without our participation in it. Rabbi Neil Blumofe of Austin, Texas stated, "We do not have to merely accept the world as it is — submitting to our powerlessness. The shofar reminds us that we are powerful, and that we have agency, and that like Abraham, we have the capacity to change our ways, recognizing the necessity of fresh perspective and a connection to a sovereignty beyond ourselves." Part of the beauty of the High Holidays is this recognition that we are not stagnant beings; we have the ability to move forward in a positive way.

Hearing the shofar in South Africa also reminded Sherry that we are all part of a much larger community. On Rosh Hashanah, Rabbi Harari talked about the movie "Won't You Be My Neighbor?" which is a heartwarming documentary about Fred Rogers. She talked about the importance of community and a neighborhood. We have been working to build our new neighborhood here at Shir Tikvah, one in which everyone can feel a sense of belonging as well as being comfortable, safe, and accepted.

Shir Tikvah has been in existence for about three months and during this period, much has been accomplished. Signing the Consolidation Agreement was just the beginning. To create our new entity, documents were filed with the state and we were informed at the end of June that Shir Tikvah, Song of Hope, now legally existed. Organizationally, our Executive Committee and Board of Directors have met and are actively governing. We have developed one new dues structure and combined our Mi Sheiberach and Yahrzeit lists. A new Shir Tikvah bank account has been opened, and we issue a monthly revenue and expense statement.

We have a new Shir Tikvah bulletin. Our Sisterhoods have combined as Women of Shir Tikvah, and we have hired a new choir director for the High Holidays, Justin Callis. While we have two ritual committees, Conservative and Reform, they are working closely together. As was recently mentioned in the bulletin, we will continue to do more together ritually. We celebrated Selichot services together and will have a combined break the fast tomorrow. While we have had occasional Shabbat kiddushes together, we will begin to do this every Shabbat.

We have established a new Transition Committee that will assist in consolidating our office operations and decorating our building with artifacts and memorabilia from both Am Echad and BYBS. We have installed new flooring throughout the building for improved safety and a brighter, fresher look. We have replaced the bimah floor, making it safer and have started on the upgrade of our sound system in the sanctuary and social hall. This will be finished in the next week.

But there is still much to be done. We need to design a new logo for Shir Tikvah. We need to plan our Fundraising

Programs for the year and start a Caring Committee. We will be painting in the halls, sanctuary and social hall and putting a seating area in where the gift shop used to be. So, there is a lot more to do and a lot to look forward to.

What does membership in Shir Tikvah mean? Yes, it means that we have a place to go for Shabbat, Festival celebrations and High Holiday services. We have the knowledge, consul and caring from Rabbi Harari. We can participate in life cycle events, social programs and education classes. But, it also means that we are part of a caring family. We support each other in happy times and not so happy times. We are there to help each other with a ride to temple or to the doctor, with a cooked dinner when we are sick, with being part of a minyan or with just checking in on each other. We are fortunate to be part of the Shir Tikvah family.

When Sherry was in Zimbabwe, she was fortunate to have dinner with six young people, three of whom were Zimbabwean lawyers. During the course of the dinner, one of the lawyers asked another one this provocative question: "What have you done to give back to your community?" We would like to pose that question to you.

Shir Tikvah is a new and vibrant organization. We manage our operations and finances responsibly. However, to operate our building and pay our staff and expenses, we need your support. Dues and our Kol Nidre Appeal are the major sources of revenue. This is the Kol Nidre Appeal part. We ask that you support Shir Tikvah to the best of your ability. Everyone is important, and all contributions are important. Nobody is ever turned away because he or she can't pay. Those of us who are able need to continue to support Shir Tikvah. Our budget is based on the consideration that everyone will give a total amount that is at or above the level the person gave last year. Think about how much you spend at Starbucks. If each person would donate an extra amount equal to the cost of one drink a week, we would have an additional $45,000 to work with. Think about the building improvements that have been made and the programs that have been offered. Think about the times you have called the rabbi for help. Think about how important it is to you to have a vibrant congregation in the south suburbs. Please send in your Kol Nidre Appeal card as soon as possible. If you already have, thank you. If you haven't yet, please do as soon as possible. If you need a card, please contact our office and we will be pleased to send you one. If you would like to contribute more than you pledged, we will also accept that.

Money is not the only way you can give back to our community. We also need people to donate time. If you are interested in being on a committee, please let us know. If you would like to help bake or serve or clean-up, please don't be afraid to participate. Participate—hmm—that is another way you can help. We need people to attend services and to attend minyans and to attend our social functions. In other words, we need you. In the documentary, Fred Rogers talks about the importance of tikkun olam, repairing the world. We can all heed the wake-up call of the shofar and start now to do our part in making this a better congregation, a better community, and a better place in the world.

Sherry and Sherman have a lot of people to thank. First and foremost, we thank our spouses, Ron and Ruth, who patiently keep saying okay to our serving one or two or three more years. We thank Rabbi Harari for her leadership and consul. Thank you to our boards who bring many years of dedicated service and wisdom and to all of our congregants who serve on committees and help out at services and social events. Of course, we cannot forget to thank Cathy, Diedre and Bob for keeping us operational.

There is also a significant amount of work during the year and for the High Holidays that keeps our services running smoothly. A big thank you to Carole and Janet, our ritual vice presidents, and to Gayle for her significant contributions behind the scenes. Thank you to Rabbi Harari, Rabbi Dreyfus, Rabbi Podwol, Dalia, Justin and our choir for the beautiful and inspirational High Holiday services.

Shir Tikvah is for all of us, and we hope to see you frequently at services, programs and social activities. From Ron and Sherry and from Sherman, Ruth, and Jonathan, A Happy, Healthy and Sweet year 5779.
