Rabbi's Message

Rabbi Harari is out of the country and will return on March 8th. She will have an article next month.

Presidents' Message

"The times they are a changin'." When Robert Zimmerman, (aka Bob Dylan) wrote those words in 1963, we know he wasn't thinking about Shir Tikvah, but they are certainly applicable to our evolving congregation. Each month as we write the message for the bulletin, more and more changes have been made as we continue to meld into one unified congregation.

With our March Bulletin we are pleased to introduce a new logo for Shir Tikvah. Our board has been meeting with Marc Fishman, a professional graphic designer, over a period of several months, and together, have developed a logo that represents our new entity. We wanted a logo that was fresh, would age well and clearly states what Shir Tikvah stands for and represents. The hands stand for a welcoming and open congregation, where all of us can feel comfortable as we attend services, social events and educational programs. The hands also represent the warmth and caring of our congregation and congregants. It is a logo that we should all take pride in and be proud of the organization that we are creating together.

In addition, thanks to our Facilities Committee and Bob, we continue to improve and modernize our building. Our Transition Committee has developed a new mission statement, which was approved by the board. They are also working on renovating our library, making it more user friendly and publicizing it to the congregation. We now have a joint Kiddush after Saturday morning services and have combined our separate Religious Committees into one who work together on Conservative and Reform services. We have one Fundraising Committee and our social events are all unified. Our former Sisterhoods are now the Women of Shir Tikvah. Our first Membership Directory and Ad Book is now at the printer — thank you Ad Book Committee.

We just recently had our first Bar Mitzvah. Mazel tov and congratulations to Louie and the Bloomberg family.

So while Bob Dylan didn't have Shir Tikvah in mind, we certainly are a changin as we continue to build an entity that we can all be proud of and supportive.

Your co-presidents,

Sherman and Sherry

News from the Principal

Beit AmiChai Hebrew School

At last it is the month of March, the month that Spring begins and hopefully Winter weather will ease up for us! It is also the time to celebrate Purim! This year, Congregation Beth Israel in Munster is hosting our joint Purim carnival. The carnival will take place on Sunday, March 17th from 10:00-11:45 am. It is always so much fun to get together with the other congregations in the area to celebrate holidays.

We will continue our Purim celebration on Wednesday, March 20th at Shir Tikvah at 7:00 pm for the reading of the Megillah. There will not be Hebrew School that day so families can come and celebrate Purim. Ice Cream will be served prior to the reading of the Megillah.

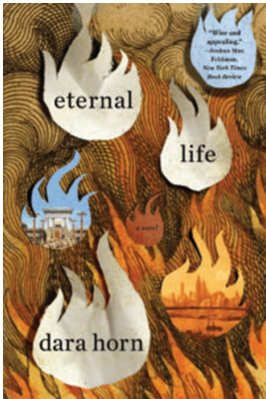

We look forward to the school and community joining together on Friday, March 8th for a family service at Temple Anshe Sholom at 7:00 pm. Nancy Friedman will lead the Youth Choir that evening.

Thank you to everyone who generously supported our Butter Braid fundraiser.

~Mindy Miller, Principal

Women of Shir Tikvah

So, what's next on our agenda?

On Sunday, March 3rd, 12 Noon we have a Brunch and Book Review, "Eternal Life," by Dara Horn.

What would it really mean to live forever?

Rachel's current troubles—a middle-aged son mining digital currency in her basement, a scientist granddaughter trying to peek into her genes—are only the latest in a litany spanning dozens of countries, scores of marriages, hundreds of children, and 2,000 years, going back to Roman-occupied Jerusalem. Only one person shares her immortality: an illicit lover who pursues her through the ages. But when her children develop technologies that could change her fate, Rachel must find a way out. From ancient religion to the scientific frontier, Dara Horn pits our efforts to make life last against the deeper challenge of making life worth living.

Next you are invited to our First Passover Taste n' Tell featuring delicious recipes for Passover. Make, bring and share your favorite recipe! We're compiling a book of the recipes so send yours in to the office today! Just put Taste n' Tell in the memo. Email the office.

Wednesday, March 27th, 6:00-8:00pm No charge but donations are welcomed.

Birthday Luncheon at Aurelio's Pizzeria in Homewood

Each 2nd Thursday, we gather at 12:30pm to celebrate the birthdays in the month! So if you have a birthday in March, come and celebrate with us! It's a great time to gather, gab, and grab lunch together.

Support the Sisterhood by purchasing Jewel Cards! We receive a percentage from each card we sell. Denominations are $25, $50 and $100 and are available in the office. Thanks for your support!

As you can see, our sisterhood, the Women of Shir Tikvah, is active and vibrant. We hope to see you at our events as we celebrate and support Shir Tikvah!

B'Shalom

Co-Presidents, Women of Shir Tikvah

Wow! The Erev Oscar Party was super fun! If you missed it, well, there's always next year. We met on the red carpet, shared an abundance of hors d'oeuvres, and watched a great movie. The group was intimate; the attired ranged the gamut, and everyone had a great time.

Gold and Blue cards are available at a cost of $5.00-5.50. Please send your request to Carol Zucker.

Jewel Cards are available for purchase in the office. Please consider using these when shopping as they help support our sisterhood events.

Thank you for the help we were given when Len was taken to the hospital recently from Shabbat Morning Services. We appreciate your kindness.

Len & Adeline Lasker

Thank you so much for the fruit basket in memory of Ron's sister, Rosemary Murphy. She was a kind, loving person, but renal failure won the battle. Rosemary had been to services at Am Echad and always enjoyed discussing them with me.

Thank you again for your kindness. We are truly a warm community.

Sherry and Ron Dieckman

We mourn the deaths of Louise Stein, Eva Pearl Schulz, and Maurice Schwartz. May their memories forever be a blessing.

News You Can Use

SHALACH MANOT FOR PURIM

In keeping with the delightful Purim tradition of giving shalach manot gifts to friends in the form of fruit, candies, and cookies, Shir Tikvah is pleased to offer shalach manot packages. Each package will include delicious hamantaschen, candy, nuts, fruit, and a card indicating the givers of the package. There will be a $6.25 charge per name submitted or package ordered and a $1 delivery fee for each package you ask us to deliver (locally). Shalach manot packages will be available for pick up at Shir Tikvah on Tuesday, March 19, around noon.

Also! We have designed a lovely card that we will send in lieu of goodies that don't travel well, as shalach manot to your out-of-town friends and relatives. The card states that a donation has been made to Shir Tikvah in honor of the recipient. Each card is $4.00.

Please email your list if you like. We love email! Also, if you have purchased shalach manot in the past and would like a copy of your old list, please let us know and we will send you your list.

Orders MUST be received with payment to Shir Tikvah, 1424 W 183rd Street, Homewood, IL 60430 by Wednesday, March 13, 2019.

Windy City Blues

Renee Rosen will speak on Friday night, April 5th at 7:30 pm about her novel at Shir Tikvah, 1424 W. 183rd Street, Homewood.

The novel spans the years from 1947 to 1969 and is rooted in the history of the legendary blues recording studio, Chess Records. The story alternates between the perspectives of owner Leonard Chess and fictional characters Leeba Groski and Red Dupree. Groski is an aspiring songwriter from Jewish Lawndale who lands a job at Chess Records and is drawn into a relationship with Dupree, a young blues guitarist newly arrived from the South. The novel describes Jewish immigrant life on Maxwell Street, the unregulated early days of the recording industry, and the intransigency of racial and religious discrimination.

The Spertus Institute for Jewish Learning and Leadership picked Windy City Blues for One Book/One Community in 2017.

The program is free and open to the public.

A partner with the Jewish United Fund in serving our community.

The 6th Annual JCC Chicago Jewish Film Festival runs March 1 – 17 and features 43 films at venues across the city and suburbs: ArcLight Theaters in Glenview and Chicago; Cinemark Theatres in Deer Park and Evanston; the Music Box Theatre in Lakeview; and special screenings at the Illinois Holocaust Museum in Skokie and the Hotel at Midtown in Chicago. This year, the festival includes a World Premiere, 12 Midwest Premieres and 4 Chicago Premieres, along with insightful talkbacks following many of the films, all totaling 96 screenings over the course of the three weekends.

The 2019 JCC Chicago Jewish Film Festival is a celebration of strength and resilience, and in particular, a tribute to strong female protagonists whose experiences made a difference for their families and the world. Golda's Balcony, a one-woman film about Israel's fearless, first and only woman to serve as Prime Minister, is brought to life through the critically-acclaimed performance by Tovah Feldshuh. Grateful, a closer-to-home story about a 40-something mom and wife, Jenni Berebitsky, who has ALS, has left audiences laughing through tears and in awe of this brave and inspirational woman. The timely feature film, Working Woman, is a drama from Israel about an ambitious career woman who struggles to restore her dignity after receiving unwanted advances from her boss.

The JCC Chicago Jewish Film Festival has grown from modest beginnings to engaging over 12,000 movie lovers in 2018. The 2019 festival is poised to reach even more people through the diverse selection of film and special events.
