Rabbi's Letter

As I write, we are nearing the end of the month of Av, which recalls one of the saddest days of the Jewish calendar: Tish'ah B'Av. Since its observance, we have moved from the theme of rebuke to the message of comfort, primarily conveyed through the seven haftaroth that are read in the seven-week period leading up to Rosh HaShanah. In the midst of this time, we will also enter into the month of Elul during which our tradition implores us to begin the work of self-reflection and t'shuvah, of preparation for repentance and renewal.

Elul has the power to be the most meaningful of times on the Jewish calendar, as we look inward, and take the opportunity to remodel ourselves. During Elul, we scrub our souls clean, and we ready the offerings of our hearts. It is a beautiful time. And, it serves as a reminder that, according to Jewish tradition, it is never too late to turn and return. In anticipation of this month and the High Holiday season, I share with you the following poem by Rabbi Harold M. Schulweis:

The last word has not been spoken
The last sentence has not been written,
The final verdict is not in.
It is never too late
To change my mind,
My direction,
To say no to the past
And yes to the future,
To offer remorse,
To ask and give forgiveness.
It is never too late
To start over again,
To feel again
To love again
To hope again...

Wishing you a meaningful month of Elul.

~Rabbi Carmit Harari

Presidents' Message

For all practical purposes, summer is over. Schools are back in session, it gets dark earlier in the evening and the mornings are cooler. With summer ending, activity is high at Shir Tikvah. Our Birthday Party was a big success. Thank you to all of our committee members who worked so hard to make our first birthday a memorable event. Also, a big thank you to all of our angels for their support and to all of our congregants who donated auction items and to all who bid.

We are very excited about the launch of our Shir Tikvah religious school. Many of our congregants and Rabbi Harari have been working hard planning and developing a curriculum that will be both innovative and interesting for our children. We look forward to a successful first year and will be sharing many of our activities and plans with you as the year progresses.

With September comes the High Holidays, this year at the end of September and the beginning of October. Plans are almost complete for both Conservative and Reform services. Rabbi Harari will conduct the Reform services and Justin Callis is back to conduct our choir. Rabbi Podwol and Dalia Podwol will lead the Conservative services. This year on the second day of Rosh Hashanah, we are pleased to welcome Rabbi Zukrow and congregants from Temple Beth-El in Munster.

If you have not already, please be sure to send your pledge and initial dues payment for the temple year. High Holiday tickets will not be issued until we have received your commitment. Security for all of our congregants, staff and guests is our highest priority. Once again we will have security personnel at both doors throughout the holidays. ALL PERSONS ENTERING THE BUILDING MUST HAVE A TICKET FOR THE HIGH HOLIDAYS. With the ongoing escalation of violence in our country, we are sure that you can understand the extra security precautions. We greatly appreciate your support in this matter in order to manage who is entering the temple.

As you can imagine, temple presidents receive numerous letters and emails of advice, counsel and comment. We recently came across the following prayer which we share with you.

A Prayer for Kehilla Presidents

Adonai, please grant our synagogue presidents clear vision to see the hidden challenges that lie ahead, both far ahead and those that lie hidden in front of their noses, but no one seems to notice. Grant our presidents excellent hearing to hear your guidance whether it comes from the heavens, a burning bush, or from the mouths of board members they disagree with.

Adonai, please grant our presidents patience. While they want to get things done quickly and we admire their drive, help them understand that they need to get the rest of the board and congregation to be on board. And please show board members and congregants that they must help the president, because he or she cannot do it all. Finding money, as always, remains a challenge for presidents, so help them find all the untapped assets that their kehilla possesses.

Adonai, please grant our presidents the strength to do what must be done for the good of the kehilla, even if it is unpopular. And give them the stamina to endure the numerous meetings and telephone calls that go with the job.

And finally, Adonai, your name is eternal, but that doesn't mean board meetings should be. Please help our presidents keep meetings collaborative, productive and short.

We, your temple presidents, are fortunate to have a caring and dedicated board, a wonderful partner in Rabbi Harari and a supportive congregation.

We wish you a Happy and Healthy New Year.

Welcome to another exciting year for the Women of Shir Tikvah. We are planning an open meeting on Sunday, September 22 at 11:00 am. Brunch will be served. We will talk about our plans for the upcoming year. Check out the flyer in the bulletin.

Next on our calendar will be our annual Break-the-Fast. The flyer is included in the bulletin. Please RSVP to Eila Koltun to let her know what you will bring. In October, several of us will be attending the Interim Leadership meeting at OSRUI.

If you have a special occasion you would like to celebrate by sponsoring an Oneg Shabbat one Friday night. Contact Penny Shnay to reserve the date.

It's not too late to send in your membership dues or Holiday Greetings.

Looking forward to an exciting year!

Gayle Weil, Sisterhood President

Funeral Plan

A funeral plan with Chicago Jewish Funerals is available for members and their immediate families at their option. To select this plan, simply call Chicago Jewish Funerals at 847-229-8822 and tell them that you are a Shir Tikvah member. They will handle all the details. The plan includes professional services of funeral director and staff, custodial and general care of remains, the option of a tahara (the traditional Jewish preparation of the body) a hearse graveside transfer vehicle, staff and equipment or chapel and a graveside or synagogue service. Merchandise includes a simple, dignified semi-oval traditional casket of dark stained wood, muslin shroud (optional, not mandatory), register book, shiva and yizkor candle, kriah ribbons, service folders, use of prayer books, kpot and 50 standard acknowledgement cards. The funeral price is $6,400. For further details, call the Shir Tikvah office or Chicago Jewish Funerals. The plan is offered as a convenience for members and their families at a time of stress, but there is no obligation to use it.
