

This coming Shabbat morning, November 9 at 9:45 am, we will have joint Reform/Conservative services as we come together to observe the 81st anniversary of Kristallnacht. This is an important and meaningful day in our congregational life and we hope many of our members can be there.

Our Torah Service will consist of seven aliyot of three Hebrew verses each. We are looking for people willing to read Torah for these aliyot. You do not need to chant, and you do not need to read out of the Torah (though you are of course welcome to if you want to.) The aliyot are:
